 Big Tree Inn Signature Item

On the east bank of the Genesee River, just west of the present campus college, a large white oak tree grew. Famous for its huge trunk, measuring approximately 27 feet in circumference, the tree led the local Seneca Indians to call this area "Big Tree."

The Big Tree Inn is one of the most familiar landmarks on Main Street in Geneseo, NY which is a historic community listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Built in 1833 as a home for Geneseo banker Allan Ayrault and his wife, Mrs. Bethiah Ayrault, it was originally called the Big Tree Lodge.

In 1886 the building was renovated by Mr. Wadsworth and Mr. William C. Nash. On September 13, 1886, it was opened as an Inn of international note. A large sign bearing the words "Big Tree Inn" in red letters was erected in front of the imposing mansion, thus giving it the name it carries to this day.
